Selection method

Selection will be made in two phases with the following criteria:

First phase: curricular evaluation

- A. Quality of the academic path
- B. Work plan
- C. Research experience (e.g. publications, contracts or grants in research projects, organization/participation in congresses or other scientific meetings), and/or Professional career (e.g. work in public or private institutions or non-governmental organizations relevant for the thesis theme)
- D. Hosting and supervising conditions

Each criteria will be classified from a minimum of 1 to a maximum of 5, and a first step score (C1) given by a weighted average with the following weights: A: 35%, B: 35%, C: 20%, D: 10%. A ranked list of the 4 candidates with the best C1 classification will be prepared to proceed to the 2nd phase of the selection.

2nd phase: interview

A classification from a minimum of 1 to a maximum of 5 (C2) will be given as a result of an interview.

The final score (CF) combines the first and second step scores with the following weights: C1 70%, C2 30%.
