

WORKSHOP

Agenda 2030 on sustainable development: How shall agricultural research and higher education respond?

21st April'16

Fundação Calouste Gulbenkian

PROGRAM

9:00-9:30 | Opening Session

Didier Pillot | Vice-president of Agrinatura

Amarilis de Varennes | President of ISA-ULisboa

Expectations about the future of agricultural research and higher education, and the Agenda 2030 on sustainable development | Video with interviews from previous day

9:30-11:00 | Session 1

Strategic priorities in agriculture research and higher education for development

Bernard Rey | DG Development & Cooperation

Thomas Arnold | DG Research & Innovation

Sustainable Development Goals. New projects and partnerships

Moses Osiru | Ruforum

Philippe Petithuguenin | IntensAfrica | Cirad

Q&A and Debate | Moderated by Michael Hauser (Agrinatura President) and Maria Herminia Cabral (Fundação Calouste Gulbenkian, Partnerships for Development Director) (30 minutes)

Questions live & on twitter

11:00-11:30 | Coffee-break

11:30-12:30 | Session 2

Global Support Facility (GSF) for the National Information Platforms for Nutrition (NIPN)

Andrew Hall | Natural Resources Institute

Inclusive and Sustainable Value Chains and Food Fortification | Value Chain Analysis

Pierre Fabre | DG Development & Cooperation

Capacity Development for Agriculture Innovation Systems

Myra Wopereis | ICRA

Q&A and Debate | Moderated by Didier Pillot (Agrinatura Vice-President) and Luís Mira da Silva (INOVISA/ISA-Ulisboa) (30 minutes)

Questions live & on twitter

12:30-13:00 | Closing Session

Wrap up and conclusions

Michael Hauser | President of Agrinatura

Ana Paula Laborinho | President of Camões

Paulo Ferrão | President of Science and Technology Foundation