

Food Law Winter School

Are you a law student and want to stand out from the rest?
Have you always been curious about the relation between science and law?

Free

An opportunity to try a food safety law course at Wageningen University

1 ECTS

Why to choose Wageningen University?

- Wageningen University is known for its innovative and ground-breaking research
- Offers excellent facilities and high level of education
- Voted # 1 University in the Netherlands for the seventh year in a row
- Top 70 of the world's best universities by the Times Higher Education World University Rankings
- The most international university in the Netherlands (>112 nat.)
- Multidisciplinary between science groups
- Personal contact and informal hierarchy

Winter School in Food Law

• When?

From 11th to 14th February 2014

• Where?

Wageningen University, the leading European University in Food Sciences.

• Why go there as a lawyer?

In order to stay competitive on the legal job market, the increasing trend to integrate science into regulation requires lawyers to add specific scientific knowledge to their legal skills. This course is tailored to accompany especially these needs.

During the Winter school you will have the opportunity to take a closer look at the regulations governing food. You will be introduced to the basic principles of European food safety policy such as the "farm to fork" approach.

• What to expect?

During these 4 days you will have an intensive programme. Daily lectures and workshops by internationally recognised leading experts in the field ensure provision of in-depth analysis on core issues on food regulation, such as European Food Law, American Food Law, Food Law and Economics etc. The course will deal with different regulatory regimes such as in the USA and the EU. Special emphasis will be given to team-working tasks where participants will work together to solve a problem using law sources.

• What is expected from me?

To have good command of English.

To attend all lectures and activities, because you will definitely learn a lot!

To read the study materials in advance, so you will be prepared for the lectures!

And finally to fill in the registration form!

• Costs?

Free

• Where will I stay?

There will be a room provided by other students, so you will stay in a student room in Wageningen! (you don't have to pay for that)

• What about the food?

Food will be provided by Wageningen University and sponsors of the event.

• What else to expect?

During the lectures you will meet professionals from different fields, who will provide in-depth analysis on food law and regulation as well as on further career opportunities in the field. Additionally, you will have the opportunity to contact professionals from International Authorities, such as EFSA and the European Commission. There will be a tour around University Campus and the city of Wageningen to get a grasp of what it is like to be a student of Wageningen University, as well as some more social activities in the evenings.

You can download the registration form from Facebook page:

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/194379747412031/#!/groups/194379747412031/>

www.facebook.com/foodlawwinterschool-Wageningen

Or

send an e-mail to neshe.yusuf@wur.nl to get the registration form!

When you fill in the registration form, please send it back to the same e-mail address!

Deadline: 5th January 2014